

HUMAN OPTIONS, INC.

MISSION: To help battered women, their families and our community break the cycle of domestic violence.

CONTACT: Barbara Cramer

PHONE: (949) 722-8744

EMAIL: bcramer@humanoptions.org

FAX: (949) 722-0968

ADDRESS: P.O. Box 53745, Irvine, CA 92619

WEBSITE: www.humanoptions.org

WISH LIST:

Food Pantry Items: tomato sauce and paste, tomatoes, spaghetti sauce, tuna, soups, vegetables, pasta

New or Barely Used Baby Items: diapers,

Housing Items: products, cleaners, office supplies, new linens for new residents

Miscellaneous Items for the Residents: Paper, "Hooked on Phonics", financial donations for scholarships, camperships and childcare, furnishings and computer software.

Specific Needs: Toys and gift items for teenagers; gift certificates for groceries and/or clothing at Target, Mervyns, etc.

CHILDREN'S PROGRAM: Puppets, puppet racks, puppet theater, paints, drop cloths, jumping ropes, stickers, Crayola activity sets, sponge blocks, plastic containers to store toys, sand toys, big parachute, chalkboard, toddler bikes, glitter, kid scissors, baby dolls, doll house with people, dinosaurs, beads to string necklaces, balls, Fisher Price toddler toys, scholarships for hobbies: art, dance, gymnastics, scouts, sports), musical instruments, fruit and vegetable seeds, Polaroid film 600, interactive books, plastic swimming pools, Legos, play cars, sidewalk chalk, bookcases/shelves to store toys, bubbles, blocks, Play dough, large drawing pads, toddler puzzles.

Children's Program Contact: Taube Levitt (949-722-8744).

Volunteers: Handyman, adopt an apartment to decorate, volunteers with access to trucks to pick up and deliver donations, volunteers to work in the children's program, lawyers to work at low cost or pro bono, dentists to help families with dental care, tutors for the children, AND apartment managers or owners willing to rent at below market prices to residents that graduate their program.

Shelter Contact: Bonita Carr (949-737-5242 x 211)

Second Step Contact: April Parker (949-650-6272)