SIMPLIFY HOLIDAY HOSTING

Simplify Holiday Hosting from Start to Finish

FAMILY FEATURES

Hosting a major holiday event is no small effort. It requires close attention to detail from planning, cooking and cleaning to entertaining guests on the big day. Fortunately, just like any good recipe, approaching your hosting duties one step at a time can allow you to create a magnificent final product.

This Thanksgiving, the experts at Finish are helping hosts everywhere get organized, from the initial planning all the way through clean up, with the Ultimate Thanksgiving Timer. Created in partnership with Gaby Dalkin of "What's Gaby Cooking," it's a personalized hosting timeline designed to help hosts stay on track up to and throughout the big day.

"I've been hosting holiday gatherings for years and know from firsthand experience that even capable hosts struggle to time everything just right," Dalkin said. "From planning your menu and designing your tablescape to accommodating dietary restrictions and even serving dessert, the Ultimate Thanksgiving Timer will support hosts every step of the way this year."

Plan Your Guest List and Menu

Deciding how many guests you'll be serving and what you plan to serve are two essential details that will guide the rest of your planning. When creating your guest list, be realistic about how many are likely to attend and plan your menu for a few extra people so you don't run out of food. Your menu may also be influenced by how many guests you plan to host; a whole turkey is practical for a large group, but a turkey breast may be adequate for a more intimate gathering. Remember to send your invites at least three weeks ahead of the event so guests have plenty of time to respond and you can prepare your menu.

Start Grocery Shopping Early

The rush at the grocery store can be one of the most stressful parts of getting ready to host. Give yourself enough lead time by picking up pantry staples and beverages 1-2 weeks out so your kitchen is stocked for the big day. For perishables, get to the grocery store early in the day 1-2 days before hosting to beat the rush and avoid any last-minute grocery runs the morning of your gathering.

Maximize Prep Time

While it's likely the majority of your work will come on the big day, you can work ahead to reduce some of the load. For example, you can wash and chop vegetables for stuffing and other side dishes and store them overnight to minimize prep time in the morning. You can also use the quiet of the night before to tackle tasks like setting the table and organizing your seating chart, restocking towels and replenishing other essentials in the guest bathroom.

Enlist Help with Cooking

The day of your event is the perfect time to pull extra hands into the kitchen. A simple but tasty recipe like this Ultimate Cheesy Herb Sourdough Stuffing from Dalkin is a sure crowd-pleaser to add to your table this year. Once you establish your cooking space and find your rhythm, you may even find sharing the preparations with a loved one is a great way to bond and create special memories.

Make Cleanup a Cinch

A few simple tricks can help you maintain a relatively clean workspace and keep up with all the dishes you need to prepare a lavish meal. First, be sure to clean up as you go. It may be tempting to throw all of your dirty utensils and empty mixing bowls in a pile in the sink to deal with later, but taking a few minutes to scrape dishes and load the dishwasher as you go can help prevent a messy mountain from forming. That also means you'll be more likely to find a clean measuring cup or spoon when you move on to prepare the next dish.

Hosts have enough to worry about, so let your dishwasher do the hard work and pull in reinforcements to help clean up while you relax after a long day. Use a detergent that works in the toughest conditions, from burnt-on stains to old dishwashers and hard water, like Finish Ultimate. It's the only dish detergent tab with CycleSense technology that releases the right ingredient at the right time to work with your dishwasher.

You can skip the rinse, even on tough stains like cranberry sauce and gravy, and save up to 20 gallons of water. Hosts are invited to put Finish Ultimate to the test and take the Ultimate Thanksgiving Challenge; if it can't tackle your burnt-on stains, the meal is on Finish via a rebate of up to $30.

Ultimate Cheesy Herb Sourdough Stuffing

Recipe courtesy of "What's Gaby Cooking" on behalf of Finish

- 1 loaf sourdough bread with crust, cut into 1-inch cubes (roughly 8 cups)
- 10 tablespoons butter
- 2 shallots, finely sliced
- 2 celery stalks, finely chopped
- 2 bunches green onions, thinly sliced
- 3/4 cup chopped fresh Italian parsley
- 2 tablespoons chopped fresh oregano
- 2 tablespoons chopped fresh sage
- 2 tablespoons chopped fresh thyme
- 3 large garlic cloves, minced
- 2 teaspoons coarse kosher salt
- 1 teaspoon freshly ground black pepper
- 3 large eggs
- 2 cups chicken broth, divided
- 6 ounces coarsely grated Parmesan cheese

Preheat oven to 375 F. On large, rimmed baking sheet, spread ripped or cubed bread. Bake until bread is dry, about 15 minutes. Cool. Leave oven on.

In heavy skillet over medium heat, melt butter. Add shallots and celery; saute 5-6 minutes. Add green onions, parsley, oregano, sage, thyme, garlic, salt and pepper; saute until celery is tender, 6-8 minutes.

Generously grease large skillet or ceramic baking dish. Place bread cubes in large bowl. Add warm vegetable mixture; toss to combine.

In medium bowl, whisk eggs and 3/4 cup broth. Add egg mixture to stuffing and toss to coat. Mix in Parmesan.

Add 1/2-3/4 cup broth to stuffing if dry. Transfer to skillet or ceramic baking dish. Cover with buttered foil. Bake 30 minutes. Remove foil; bake until golden, about 30 minutes. Serve in baking vessel or transfer to serving platter.

YOUR WINTER TRAVEL GUIDE: TOP 10 DESTINATIONS AND HOSTING TO FUND YOUR GETAWAY

If you're dreaming of a special winter getaway this year, you're not alone. Just in time for the busy holiday travel season[1], Airbnb is sharing its annual winter travel trends, revealing the hottest trending destinations and most popular categories travelers are searching for and booking this upcoming season.

This winter, travelers are seeking memorable stays in every corner of the globe, looking for unique locations and experiences, while avoiding some of the most popular tourist spots in favor of lesser-known gems. To make exploring easier for travelers, Airbnb continues to disperse travel across the U.S. and globally, opening up more horizons for exploration beyond standard urban centers and famous venues. The diverse representation of trending destinations shows it's possible to find something for every type of traveler on Airbnb, offering space and privacy to switch off and celebrate this extra special holiday season.

Trending global destinations

If international travel is on your wishlist this winter, here are the top trending[2] spots to consider, based on Airbnb searches between Jan. 1 through Sept. 15, 2023:

- * Osaka, Japan
- * Hong Kong
- * Quebec City, Canada
- * Taipei, Taiwan
- * Rio de Janeiro, Brazil
- * Hanover, Germany

- * Wanaka, New Zealand
- * Sao Paulo, Brazil
- * Muang Pattaya, Thailand
- * Tokyo, Japan

Cities on this list include a variety of fascinating destinations on almost every continent. For example, while tourists commonly flock to Japan's exciting capital city of Tokyo, the less famous Osaka, known for vibrant nightlife, street food and historic sites, is quickly gaining attention. Other Asian highlights include Taipei, Taiwan, and Hong Kong - both boasting a fascinating mix of old and new architecture, enticing cuisine, bustling night markets and countless cultural attractions, as well as Muang Pattaya, Thailand - attracting visitors with its beautiful beaches and lively nightlife.

Other attractions on the list of trending destinations include the celebrated parks and gardens of Hanover, Germany, and the strikingly European style of Quebec City, Canada - with its cobblestone streets and historic architecture. Those attracted to the dynamic music, arts and culture of Brazil will find plenty of excitement in Sao Paulo and Rio de Janeiro. And for visitors drawn to natural beauty, hiking and skiing, travel around the globe to Wanaka, New Zealand, will not disappoint.

If you dream of spending your vacation lounging around the pool, riding the surf or playing endless rounds of golf on a top-notch course, Airbnb Categories allows travelers to discover millions of unique places around the world, with homes in over 60 different categories based on style, location and other sought-after factors.

Based on the bookings between Jan. 1 through Sept. 15, 2023, here are some of the top booked Airbnb categories for U.S. guests:

- * Amazing pools
- * Beach
- * Tropical
- * National parks
- * Iconic cities
- * Amazing views
- * Golfing
- * Cabins
- * Countryside
- * Surfing

Hosting also brings benefits

The upcoming holiday season is not only a time for a relaxing trip away, it's also the perfect time to consider hosting. According to Airbnb, during the 2022 holiday season, U.S. hosts collectively earned over $300 million, with hosts typically earning nearly $3,500 between Nov. 1 and Dec. 31, 2022[3]*.

This year, the opportunity to earn from hosting extends from coast to coast - with the following destinations confirmed as being the top trending cities travelers are searching this winter:

- * State College, Pennsylvania
- * Greensboro, North Carolina
- * Lihue, Hawaii
- * Hanalei, Hawaii
- * Eugene, Oregon

- * Washington, D.C.
- * Knoxville, Tennessee
- * Gainesville, Florida
- * Universal City, California
- * Ann Arbor, Michigan

Households that have extra space can learn more about hosting at Airbnb.com/ host to make the most of the upcoming holiday season.

[1] Winter and holiday time period defined as November 1 - December 31.

[2] Calculated by growth in global searches in 2023 thru Sept. 15, for checkin between Nov. 1 - Dec. 31, 2023, compared to the same period in 2022.

[3] The typical Host earnings amount represents the median amount of earnings for Hosts between Nov. 1 and Dec. 31, 2022. Earnings will depend on several factors, including your availability, price, and the demand in your area. - (BPT)

5 EXPERT TIPS TO HELP GET YOUR HOME READY FOR THE HOLIDAYS

With the holiday season already underway, your schedule will soon be packed with festive get-togethers, cocktail parties and family gatherings. To help make the upcoming season a little more joyful and a lot less stressful, try taking a more proactive approach by starting your holiday prep and cleaning routines now - with a little help from the home along the way.

Below are some top tips, compliments of the MaidPro PROs to help you get your home holiday-ready so you can relax and enjoy the festivities more than ever this year.

1. Develop a gameplan

Before throwing a party or hosting overnight visitors, identify the main areas in your home that are due for a deep clean - and prioritize the rooms guests are most likely to visit. That may include your living room, dining room and powder room, as well as any guest bedrooms. Focus on decluttering these areas first so you are able to access surfaces in need of a deeper clean.

2. Start with a ground-up deep clean

Typical cleaning routines may include wiping down counters, dusting, mopping and vacuuming, but did you know there is a smart way to vacuum? Vacuuming in a zig-zag pattern is the best way to truly clean carpets. The fibers in carpets are primarily twisted loops that get dirty from all sides, so vacuuming in only one direction isn't always effective. To fully clean carpets, work the vacuum across a room in one direction in a zig-zag pattern. Repeat the process from a right angle. This pattern provides the best results, saves time and can help reduce symptoms of allergies.

3. Deep clean the kitchen before holiday cooking

Before guests start arriving, be sure to deep clean the kitchen in preparation for holiday baking and entertaining. Deep clean the range, stovetop, surfaces and grates. Clean out the refrigerator to make room for party foods and be sure to dust the top of the refrigerator. Also give a fresh clean to all large and small appliances. Finally, wipe down kitchen cabinets to tackle any forgotten spills.

4. Make your guest room extra hospitable

Is your guest room doing double duty as an office? Has your guest bathroom become a catch-all area for things with nowhere else to go? Now is the perfect time to refresh and refocus. Enter your guest room with a visitor's eye. Deep clean bathrooms and medicine cabinets (yes, people will look). Wash or spot clean area rugs. Dust all surfaces, including bookshelves, photo frames, and art - don't forget the ceiling fans! Finally, clean trash receptacles and add fresh liners.

5. Prepare in advance for time-honored holiday stains

Holiday food, beverages and traditions can cause some unexpected spills and spots. To remove red wine, spray water on the stain to keep it wet. Cover it with white vinegar to neutralize purple and red pigments. Follow with liquid detergent and hot water to flush out the stain. For dripped candle wax, rub ice cubes over the wax until it hardens. Scrape up most of the wax and place a paper bag over the patch that has residual wax. Use a warm iron to press over the area to liquefy the wax, allowing it to absorb into the bag. For soot stains from the fireplace, grab a dry brush and scrub off as much of the soot as possible (avoid water). Apply some rubbing alcohol on the edge of a sponge or towel and blot until the last of the stain is gone.

Hire a PRO

Chances are you could use assistance to make your home clean, tidy and festive before the holidays arrive, so consider hiring a MaidPro home cleaner (a PRO) to make your life easier. MaidPro PROs are known for their attention to detail and commitment to customer service, using a 49-Point Checklist that offers peace of mind and the comfort that comes from a sparkling clean, orderly home.

Beyond deep cleans in time for the season, starting early will also provide the advantage of getting to know your cleaning PRO (and your PRO learning your needs and preferences) in advance of the busiest time of year. You'll know what to expect from each cleaning session, ensuring quality and consistency throughout your home cleans, so you can dedicate your time to planning the ultimate holiday events and family gatherings.

Give friends and family a beautifully clean, entertaining-ready home this year - just in time to celebrate the holidays - with a MaidPro gift card. The gift of clean is simple with MaidPro's electronic gift cards, available at www.maidpro.com/giftcards.

PAGEANT OF THE MONSTERS ATTRACTS SOLD-OUT CROWDS

The Festival of Arts and Pageant of the Masters brought ghoulish delight to Laguna Beach October 27, 28, 29 and 31 during the long-awaited return of Pageant of the Monsters. The Halloween festivities attracted sold-out crowds of over 9,000 locals and visitors – shattering the previous record set during the last event in 2018. Funds for this program were provided in part by the lodging establishments and the City of Laguna Beach.

"We're delighted with the overwhelming success of this year's Pageant of the Monsters. The enthusiastic participation from our volunteers and the excited response from the community is what makes this event so special," shared Diane Challis Davy, Pageant of the Masters Director and creator of the Monsters event. "We're grateful for everyone who contributed to making this event a memorable and magical experience. We can't wait to do it again in 2028."

The haunted house, themed the "Maze of the Minotaur" for 2023, brought guests through the Pageant's amphitheater, workshops and stage which had been transformed into the labyrinth from ancient legend by the Pageant's creative team. Welcoming guests into the maze, a Greek oracle was projected over the stage and told the story of the brave warrior Theseus and his quest to rescue captives from the savage Minotaur. Greek mythology inspired the haunting vignettes throughout the maze with appearances by Zeus, Medusa, Pandora, Poseidon, Aphrodite among other gods, monsters and creatures - all performed by over 100 volunteer cast members. Volunteers also assisted with make-up, costumes and other behind-the-scenes roles to bring Challis Davy's haunted maze to life.

At the entrance to the Festival of Arts grounds, guests passed under giant green monster claws and spiderwebs, to be greeted by thirteen scarecrows for the return of the Pageant of the Monsters' Scarecrow Contest. Attendees voted for their favorites from October 27 to 29 for the People's Choice Award. On Halloween night, the winner was announced as well as the top three selected by Challis Davy. Taking the first place prize of $500 was an a-maze-zing minotaur scarecrow created by Joseph Feinberg titled "Maize of the Minotaur." The second place prize of $250 was awarded to "Wednesday Scares Crows" by James and Kristen Yates. The third place prize of $100 went to "The Watcher" by Jayne Dion, who also took home People's Choice Award.

In addition to the haunted house and scarecrow contest, Pageant of the Monsters offered many fang-tastic festivities such as the Alien Autopsy and Demented Chef side shows. Laguna Beach arts organizations, including Laguna Art-A-Fair, Sawdust Art and Craft Festival, Laguna Art Museum, Laguna

Playhouse and LOCA Arts Education, filled the Festival of Arts grounds with free Halloween-themed art activities. Families enjoyed face painting, art displays, and having their fortunes told, as well as the chance to meet snakes and other creatures from the Reptile Zoo. The Halloween ambiance was further enhanced with costumed stilt-walkers, Pageant sets, silent movies, and live DJs, making it a spook-tacular event for all to enjoy.

Pageant of the Monsters bids a chilling farewell as it embarks on a haunting hiatus, returning in 2028 for the Festival of Arts and Pageant of the Masters 95th Anniversary Celebration. For more information on upcoming events, follow the Festival and Pageant on social media at @FestivalPageant and visit www.foapom.com.

ABOUT THE ORGANIZATION
The Festival of Arts, a non-profit 501(c)(3), has long been a local leader that has helped with the growth and development of the community and the arts in Laguna Beach. Established in 1932. The Festival of Arts produces two world-class events: The Festival of Arts Fine Art Show and the Pageant of the Masters. Together both shows attract over 200,000 visitors each year.

MAX OUT YOUR CHILL: 4 TYPES OF ICE TO ELEVATE YOUR HOLIDAY COCKTAILS

The winter holidays are fast approaching. If you enjoy hosting friends and family for dinners or the occasional happy hour especially during the holiday season, one way to impress your guests is to plan and prepare various drinks for each occasion.

While you likely prioritize getting the best spirits, mixers and glasses, it's essential not to overlook the significance of ice. Different ice shapes serve distinct purposes, and incorporating the right ones into your beverages will wow your guests and let you flex your skills as a home barkeep. Check out the four main types of ice and how to use them when crafting holiday drinks.

1. Cubed

Classic and versatile, cubed ice is your all-purpose companion. Whether you're crafting a classic Long Island iced tea or a refreshing gin and tonic, cubed ice will swiftly chill your spirits. It's also perfect for serving iced teas, rum and cola or mojitos in a highball glass.

2. Crushed

Recognizable by its pebble-like texture, crushed ice brings a unique element to your drinks. The pebble-like ice melts faster than your typical cubed ice. While not all cocktails benefit from dilution, certain creations like the Mint

Julep thrive on it, according to Vine Pair. Crushed ice's ability to thin out syrup and juices is its secret weapon, especially for dessert options like a homemade take on shaved ice.

3. Mini cubed

A generous supply of mini-cubed ice is the perfect answer for filling water bottles or delivering a quick chill. Like crushed ice, mini-cubed ice is fantastic at quickly cooling drinks, making iced coffee or chilling soda and water.

If your plans involve blended drinks or frozen cocktails, mini-cubed ice is the way to go. The small cubes blend smoothly, so every drink you make has a consistent texture.

4. Round

Round ice (also known as sphere or ball ice) isn't just aesthetically pleasing. It melts slowly, gradually chilling your drink without diluting it. For those who enjoy sipping on whiskey, bourbon or craft cocktails, opt for round ice in a lowball glass. It's also helpful to keep any cocktail or non-alcoholic drink chilled during long parties.

You can get round ice trays to make them at home, but if you have an LG refrigerator, some make slow-melt LG Craft Ice™, so you can have round ice on demand.

All the ice you need at home

While your fridge may make cubed and crushed ice, you'll likely have to buy specialty trays to make others, like mini-cubed and round shapes. Even for cubed and crushed ice, your fridge may not make enough to serve drinks to your guests all night.

You can effortlessly enjoy all these four ice options at your convenience with the LG Smart Mirror InstaView® Counter-Depth MAX French Door Refrigerator. This large-capacity fridge makes these four types of ice to suit any holiday get-together or occasion, including LG's exclusive slow-melting, round Craft Ice™.

In addition to its spacious interior, the refrigerator offers a sleek, counter-depth design that blends seamlessly with surrounding cabinets and also features LG's latest Mirror InstaView® window. With just two quick knocks on the glass panel, you can illuminate the contents inside your refrigerator.

To learn more, visit LG.com/US. Elevate your entertaining with the perfect ice for every occasion. - (BPT)

ROBIN WILLIAMS SEA CLIFF MANSION LISTS $25 MILLION

Beloved funnyman Robin Williams got his start with a scholarship to the Julliard School, where he pursued an unconventional style and amazed his teachers with an uncanny talent for accents. After getting rave reviews for his early stage roles, he left the staid classical institution and moved to the West Coast to pursue a career in stand-up comedy. Scoring a role as the alien Mork on TV's Mork and Mindy catapulted him into Hollywood, where he would go on to win an Academy Award for Best Supporting Actor for Good Will Hunting, plus six Golden Globe Awards, two Screen Actors Guild Awards, and five Grammy Awards. He was especially adored by children after starring as the Genie in Aladdin, Peter Pan in Hook, and a loving if eccentric father in Mrs. Doubtfire among many family film roles. Suffering from degenerative brain disease, he took his own life in 2014.

Marsha Garces Williams, the actor's second wife and mother of two of his children - including actress Zelda Williams - has listed the San Francisco home where the couple lived from the early '90s until 2010 for sale at $25 million. Styled like an Italian Renaissance Villa, the home was built in 1926 and extensively remodeled by Robin and Marsha, who took the property down to the studs but preserved the unique and irreplaceable building materials of the original home. Fully walled and gated, the property offers stunning views of the Golden Gate Bridge, the Pacific Ocean, and the San Francisco Bay.

With an elegant marble facade, terracotta roof, columned archways, and wrought-iron details, the estate projects an image of timeless luxury. Extensive windows bathe the wide-plank hardwood floors and high-beam ceilings in natural light. A central staircase connects the three stories of the 10,598-square-foot home. Capping the mansion's twenty rooms, the primary suite offers sweeping panoramic sea views, a Japanese-style bathroom, a private balcony, and a safe room hidden behind a paneled wall. Another secret panel in the billiards room opens to reveal a Prohibition-era bar, while a secret passageway connects the bedrooms in which the Williams children grew up. Other special features include a spacious movie theatre with drop-down projector, a kitchen with top-of-the-line appliances including a La Cornue range, a butler's pantry with wet bar, a gym and sauna, a whiskey room, a wine cellar, and a one-bedroom guest apartment with its own entrance. A tiled patio, a firepit, an outdoor BBQ and lovely gardens complete the estate.

Sea Cliff is one of San Francisco's most beautiful neighborhoods, known for its large mansions and spectacular views. The Williams estate is located just minutes from the Golden Gate Bridge, the Presidio of San Francisco with 1,500 acres of hiking trails, two beaches,

The Legion of Honor Museum, and the historic Lincoln Park Golf Course. Other illustrious residents include Twitter founder Jack Dorsey, San Francisco Giants CEO Larry Baer, and Metallica guitarist Kirk Hammett.

Taste of Wine & Food

By Frank Mangio & Rico Cassoni

WINE AND FOOD INDUSTRY'S OVERWHELMING SUPPORT FOR UNITED THROUGH READING STORY BOOK BALL

Story by Rico Cassoni.

Deployments are common for military families, with over 100,000 parents leaving nearly 250,000 children at home annually. United Through Reading (UTR) understands the importance of connecting families, offering on-demand story time video recordings read by separated parents along with a copy of the book delivered to their children to bridge the gap during separations. This helps children feel closer to their deployed parents, reducing stress and enhancing their development. Moreover, it supports emotional bonds for service members and eases their reintegration into family life. This free program is accessible to all branches of the military, including Veterans. United Through Reading strengthens military families' literacy, emotional bonds, and well-being through the power of reading together at every age, no matter the distance.

Invited by longtime friend and mentor, Committee Chair Rob Pennoyer, and UTR CEO Tim Farrell, I readily joined this year's ball committee again. The weekend-before-Halloween event allowed guests the option to abandon formal wear for storybook character costumes, adding a whimsical touch to the affair. An accidental spill of DAOU Cabernet Sauvignon on my shirt during the pre-dinner reception turned into an unexpected part of my character for the night, albeit not the one I intended.

I was grateful again this year for the wine and food industry's overwhelming support for the UTR Story Book Ball. Despite a shaky economy and world unrest, Sal Ercolano, Proprietor, The Butcher Shop and The Godfather, donated $100 gift cards for each restaurant. Randy Smerik, Proprietor, Solare Ristorante in Liberty Station, San Diego Magazine's 2023 Best Restaurant winner also pitched in a $100 gift card. Victor Magalhaes, Proprietor, Vittorio's Italian Trattoria contributed two passes for one of his upcoming monthly wine dinners valued at $150. Keith Rolle, Winemaker and Managing Director for Ocean Beach's Gianni Buonomo Vintners, donated a wine tasting package for four. Gianni Buonomo secured its sixth consecutive Best of 2023 Readers Choice award from San Diego Magazine. They also earned the Critic's Choice recognition for the third time in six years.

I was genuinely humbled by Daniel Daou, Co-Owner Master Winemaker, DAOU Family Estate's above and beyond contribution of DAOU Cabernet Sauvignon, Chardonnay, and Rose for the pre-dinner reception and dinner. Additionally, Daniel Daou donated a signed bottle of their flagship 2020 Soul of a Lion and a wine tasting and culinary experience at DAOU Mountain for four. Together the bottle and DAOU Mountain experience generated a whopping $2,500 as part of the evening's live auction conducted by Auctioneer Mark Drilling.

Serving 180 guests with a three-course meal at the Hilton was an impressive feat, and the culinary team's skills were showcased throughout the evening. The DAOU Chardonnay beautifully complemented a baby spinach and frisée salad with feta cheese, blackberries, candied walnuts, and citrus-maple vinaigrette. The herb-crusted chicken, accompanied by roasted peppers, creamed farro, and grilled asparagus, found a perfect match in the DAOU Cabernet Sauvignon, enhancing the flavors. The evening concluded with a delightful butter toffee cheesecake, paired excellently with the same Cabernet.

The program opened with remarks from United Through Reading's CEO, Tim Farrell, celebrating milestones like connecting their three millionth military family member, distributing 85,000 books, participating in 450 events, and recording 9,000 stories. Rear Admiral Yvette Davids and Crystal Bettenhausen-Bubulka shared personal stories of UTR's support. Epsilon Systems, a San Diego-based company, received the Military Family Leadership Award, with CEO Bryan Min sharing his family's story. Author and filmmaker David Barclay-Moore received the Audrey Geisel Friend of Military Children Award, dedicating his latest book, Boyogi, to his late father, Army Veteran John Nathaniel Moore.

I was excited to see that the Story Book Ball raised over $150,000 for this most amazing cause. Those wishing to learn more about UTR and possibly contributing can do so at unitedthroughreading.org.

HOMEAID ORANGE COUNTY RAISES $400,000 AT SOLD OUT "HOPE FOR HOUSING" GALA

Photos by Sheri Determan

It was a grand evening at the Balboa Bay Resort, where over 300 VIPs, supporters, and celebrities gathered to celebrate the HomeAid Orange County Hope in Housing Gala. The annual gala will fund HomeAid OC's mission to help people experiencing or at risk of homelessness build new lives through construction, community engagement, and education. The nonprofit raised nearly $400,000.

"We came together to celebrate HomeAid's accomplishments and raise the critically needed funds for HomeAid's work in the upcoming year," said Dave Prolo, President of Utah Division, Meritage Homes, and event co-chair.

Prolo, along with Mike Battaglia, Southern California Division President of The New Home Company, were co-chairs of the event. "The support tonight will propel the work and widespread impact of HomeAid in our community for people experiencing or at risk of homelessness," Battaglia added.

Guests enjoyed a hosted bar, a massive silent auction area during the cocktail reception, then a premier dining experience, entertaining music from The Family Style band, and a live auction.

The silent auction was popular as attendees could bid via their smart devices. Among the over 100 items donated, some unique offerings included several pairs of Duck tickets in the City of Anaheim Suite, an Aston Martin Weekend Test Drive, a one-night stay at the Pendry, a night stay at Surf & Sand Resort, and a two-night stay at Balboa Bay Resort.

Gina Cunningham, Executive Director for HomeAid Orange County, who also was honored to receive the Barbara J. Stewart Award for Women's Achievement at the 50th MAME GSMC event, recognized the many participants who worked hard to create this event and its success, including the board of directors, members, staff, and volunteers. "HomeAid believes that housing is a human right and the only way to eradicate homelessness is through housing development. I am grateful to everyone who joined so we can continue building units for unhoused people," Cunningham stated.

Dinner was served with a starter of garden field greens with farm-gathered leaf lettuces, poached pear, Gorgonzola cheese with dried cranberries, candied walnuts, and a caramelized shallot vinaigrette. The entrée was a duet of Jidori Chicken Breast and Jumbo Prawns with confit garlic mashed potatoes, sweet corn and squash succotash, and pickled red onions with a garlic Cajun sauce. Oh, and the dessert, a yummy chocolate trilogy that had a flourless chocolate cake, milk chocolate mousse, AND white chocolate mousse with a berry coulis... yes, it was yummy.

A touching video featuring HomeAid's Family Care Center clients, Rebecca and John, in the Second Chance: Coming Home trailer, a HomeAid OC partnership with Steve Cederquist Designs and Greyson Entertainment, LLC. Steve Cederquist and Slade Smiley of Greyson Entertainment discussed how this docu-follow drama series sheds light on the journey of reclaiming life after experiencing homelessness, set to be released in 2024.

The live auction items that were offered during the event were a six-day stay in Tuscany with a VIP entry to the Museum Academia and a cooking class by a classically trained Italian Chef, airfare included; a Greek Island vacation for eight nights with airfare included (which sold twice); a four-hour harbor cruise for six through Alamitos Bay, Naples, and Belmont shores then on to the Queen Mary; a six-night Costa Rica vacation including airfare; up to 1-hour long ride with race Car Driver John Marconi in his U.S. and World Championship Winning Ferrari 348; a seven-night vacation in a luxury Casa Piazza in Manilla Mexico; and a private dinner for ten at Sub-Zero wolf with wine pairing.

Raise the Paddle created more funds for the nonprofit, especially when two families, the Lukos Family and the Gregg Miller Family Foundation, couldn't be there but pledged a combined $25,000 towards HomeAid's mission.

After the auction, guests stayed and danced the night away to The Family Style band.

Founded in 1989, HomeAid develops, builds, and preserves various housing, including emergency, interim, transitional, permanent supportive, and affordable housing, through its 19 affiliates in 13 states. In addition, this includes resource/navigation centers that provide support services to those experiencing or at risk of homelessness. HomeAid partners with hundreds of nonprofit organizations nationwide that provide the housing and support services that help residents move toward self-sufficiency, such as education and job-skills training, financial counseling, physical and emotional support, and much more. HomeAid has completed nearly 1,100 housing and outreach projects totaling more than $319 million. In addition, HomeAid has added over 12,800 beds that have served over 604,000 previously homeless individuals. For more information, visit HomeAid Orange County at <https://www.homeaidoc.org>.

Directory Advertising Hits the Jackpot for Small Business with a Limited Ad Budget $49.95

"I'm not a big business, but I know that you have to advertise someplace and these little ads don't cost too much so I figure if you expect to get any new customers, I gave the little 'directory' ads in the newspaper a try. Nothing happened for the first week, not even a phone call. Then Boom! comes three new customers. Paid for my little ads and a nice profit. I'd say I hit the jackpot. Sign me up for another week newspaper ladies!"

The above story may not be exciting but is typical of advertisers who are shopping for advertising that is affordable but gives them something back for their money. Here's another:

As a Woman Who Owns A Small Business These Newspaper Directory Ads are a Great Value

"We women have to work harder to make a small business grow. Thanks to small, affordable ads in this newspaper I've got ads running every week. Every call helps my business grow. I give you an A+ for good prices and steady results."

Looking for the Penny Saver in all the Wrong Places

"I Used to get pretty good results from the Penny Saver, but when the Penny Saver closed up, I found this newspaper's little directory ads are even cheaper and work just about as good. Usually get two or three calls a month and most of them wind up being my customers. My bookkeeper says your directory ads work pretty good for the money"

Newspaper Directory Ads Worked Just Fine, Cost Less than Half!- Nice!

"We tried some slick magazine ads that had beautiful pictures on the cover and they worked real good for a while but they were costing us an arm and a leg so we tried these little directory ads in your newspaper .The ads are smaller, but cost way less than half of what we were paying the magazines and the newspaper directory ads seem to work about as well. We are glad we tried them. They are a pretty good deal for the low price."

New Business Owner Likes Lower Priced Ads

"I Just Started my New Business and Happy that I Can Afford Your Newspaper Directory Ads.I need to attract new customers and these ads are priced just right."

Print your ad copy in the box at right.
